

There should not be any Federal law that would change the Indiana Privacy law to allow unwanted telemarketing.